

Celebrating 50 years of Service

Boonstra's One Hour Heating and Air Conditioning is pleased to recognize Joe Slagter for 50 years of service. Joe was 16 years old and a newly arrived immigrant to Canada when he started working for Boonstra in 1958. Over the years, Joe has built up a strong customer base and can proudly boast that he has looked after the heating and air conditioning needs of some families for three generations. Joe's easy-going manner and genuine interest in people have been important attributes of his success in sales. His loyalty was recognized recently by Rebecca Cassel a One Hour Heating Official from Sarasota Florida and Canadian owners Bruce Cook and Vaughn Goettler as well as general manager Cameron Kerr. Boonstra is pleased to recognize Joe's continued enthusiasm. Congratulations to Joe for achieving a rare milestone.
